

HUD Invests in Texas

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Texas to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Texas.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $1.2 billion in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 285,088 Texas households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 624,877 individuals who reside in those households.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Texas, HUD helps to shelter 18,228 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 3,712 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 6,243 homeless veterans since 2008.

Addressing Climate Change and Natural Disasters

HUD mitigates the effects of natural disasters by playing a leading role in helping communities to address the impacts of climate change. Since 2005, HUD has awarded $3.7 billion to support long-term disaster recovery and resiliency in Texas.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 819,260 Texas homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 62.9 percent.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Texas, HUD resolved 926 housing discrimination cases affecting 1,443 people.
